ORDER REQUESTING SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEFING

1 After the hearing on defendants' motion for summary judgment, the Court wishes to 2 have parties submit supplemental briefing. Parties should address the question of whether 3 taking each of the three individual plaintiffs to the Field Operations Bureau for questioning or
4 to give statements violated their Fourth Amendment rights. Specifically, they should address
5 whether the three plaintiffs went voluntarily, and whether there are genuine triable issues of fact
6 on that point. Parties should not limit themselves to evidence in their favor, and should address
7 countervailing evidence. Evidence, however, should be limited to that which has already been 8 submitted as part of the record on summary judgment. Citations to relevant Supreme Court and 9 Ninth Circuit decisions are also requested. This is not an opportunity for parties to re-argue
10 other issues in this motion; they must confine themselves to the above-stated issue.

11 Submissions should be no more than ten double-spaced pages in length with appropriate
12 font and margins. They should be received no later than AUGUST 10, 2007, AT NOON.

14 IT IS SO ORDERED.
